From the President:

May already and nearly half the year is gone. Have you done nearly half the things you intended?

I have received many emails from District 22 and Zonta International, which I am going to recap in case they have disappeared into cyberspace.

Two Zonta Clubs have folded – Tamborine Mountain and Logan. The projects of the former will be maintained by the Lions Club of Tamborine Mountain.

It is sad when Clubs can no longer be viable, but with changing demographics and changing work patterns, it is understandable. Let's hope Rockhampton Club is still flying the flag in 30 years time!

West Moreton Club has changed its name to the Zonta Club of Ipswich, to better reflect its geographical position.

Rockhampton was one of eleven clubs in our District to nominate a candidate for the YWPA Award. We were proud to nominate Julia Webb who received her Rockhampton award at our IWD Breakfast. The 2013 District 22 winner has been announced as Chloe Xin Wen Yap nominated by the Brisbane North Club.

Trish Collins as Chairman of the District 22 Nominating Committee, has called for nominations for District 22 officers, directors and nominating committee members.

Amy Weise and Lauren Keleher were presented with Zonta Encouragement Awards at the CQU. Thankyou to Carry, Cathy and Kaye for representing us at the ceremony.

The Zonta Club of Colombo11 in Sri Lanka was full of praise for the Breast Care cushions. We were reminded that Anne Selle of the Zonta Club of Botany Bay designed the cushion in 1994 in response to a perceived need.

Ros Kinder attended a breast care forum in Brisbane on May 9 and 10. Our name is on the list of clubs who make cushions and the hospitals to which they donate them.

Our International President, Lynn McKenzie asks the question "Why have you renewed your membership and what are the three key reasons?" Check out what others say on Facebook and LinkedIn sites.

At our Club level members have also been busy. We were well represented at our Area Meeting, and thankyou to the members who gave their time to attend.

Area 2 Meeting—Hosts— Hervey Bay members.

Five Rockhampton Club members enjoyed a great weekend at Hervey Bay at the recent Area 2 Meeting. First of all, the venue was great and being able to spend some relaxing time enjoying the beautiful Fraser Coast area was a bonus. Hervey Bay members did a great job organizing the meeting and all went smoothly. Sessions presented by District Governor Judith Anderson and Lieutenant Governor Judith Trevan-Hawke were very well received and our own Trish Collins and Jan Landsberg also presented sessions of great interest—Jan's being on the serious topic of Millenium Goals and Trish on social media and what it means for your club—highlighting the use of Facebook. Elizabeth represented us well with her presentation of our Club Showcase. The "Zonta Says No" banner (in the photo below) was of great interest to clubs for use as a publicity tool. Information coming.

A very interesting presentation by Leisa Harper, Principal of the Fraser Coast Anglican College gave a great outline of her working life with some very interesting stories along the way. Dinner guest speaker on Saturday evening was Nikki Colfs, Officer in Charge of the Criminal Investigation Branch for the Fraser Coast, and she held everybody's attention with her speech about her career 'journey', interspersed with some very entertaining moments as well.

A presentation by Nicole Druery, co-ordinator and hairdresser of the Hervey Bay Wig Library, explained the mysteries of wigs and the very useful aspect of wigs for those who not only suffer hair loss through medical treatment but also through other medical problems as well.

Thank you to Area Director Denise Wilschut for her part in the successful Area Meeting and many thanks to President Jenny Ferris and the Hervey Bay Club members for organizing such a great weekend.
