President's Message:

Dear Fellow Zontians

How pleased I was to be associated with all those Zontians who helped make Her Excellency the Governor of Queensland Ms Quentin Bryce's luncheon visit such a great event. Special thanks go to Chris, Robyn, Di, Berenice, Valda and Trish for that professional approach – well done.

Things are looking good for Zonta with interest from potential new members. The District Conference is approaching quickly. We have seven members registered for Conference and registrations have not closed yet. Organization of our forthcoming local fundraisers, the Film Premiere and the Christmas High Tea, is well under way.

Hope to see you all at our committee meetings (Rockhampton Plaza Hotel) on Tuesday 13 September 2005,

Yours in Zonta,

Glenys

Profile of Club Member: Marie Keating.                      Classification:

Work History:

Commenced work at the Commonwealth Health Laboratory and worked as a laboratory technician for several years before having some time out with a young family. We purchased Jans Restaurant in 1984, which we owned and operated until early 2002. Early in that time I trained and qualified as a chef. During that time, I worked part time at TAFE from 1990, and then on a casual basis for a number of small Registered Training Organisations as a Hospitality Trainer. After the sale of the Restaurant, I commenced work at Capricornia Training Company managing the Registered Training division of the Company.

Family History:

Born in Toowoomba, Darling Downs, the third of eight children, who are spread all over Australia, at any given time. Married to Pat in 1977, with three children - Andrew, who is an engineer in London; Twins, Anna, a primary teacher in Rockhampton; and Helen, an interior designer in Brisbane.

Why Central Queensland:

Moved to Central Queensland in 1974 as a job appointment with the Commonwealth Government, then married Pat, who had also relocated from Toowoomba. After purchasing a local business, we were always involved in local activities with children attending school and university locally, and later we became involved in other business opportunities which are based in Central Queensland

Personal passionate hobbies:

Reading
Cooking
Will be gardening, when I get more time

Why Zonta:

I felt a desire to become involved in a local community group, and was attracted to Zonta in particular because of the important work that Zontians do to advance the status of women both locally and overseas. I wanted to belong to a group who does something meaningful, not a purely social event.
